Position Information

This is an opportunity for:

- An internal candidate to fill a GS-14 cadre position.
- A Federal Government employee to serve on a two-year reimbursable detail assignment in the ODNI. The detail assignment may be extended an additional year if all parties agree.

Who May Apply

Current GS employees at the same grade or up to two grades lower than the advertised position grade may apply.

Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
  - Current ODNI cadre.
  - Current ODNI Staff Reserve Employees. (A staff reserve employee who currently occupies this position may not apply.)
- For a detailee assignment:
  - Current Federal Government employees.

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Plan, research, develop, and communicate in-depth counterterrorism analysis for senior policymakers and key components in the Intelligence Community (IC), law enforcement, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI). •Plan, promote, and lead the production of a broad range of finished analytic intelligence products in support of United States (US) foreign policy and national security interests. •Plan, prepare, and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant intelligence issues. •Generate, plan, and produce multidisciplinary and strategic analysis that supports key US national security and foreign policy objectives and helps shape IC analysis and priorities. •Apply a full range of methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of complex and significant analytic issues; incorporate insights and findings into well-crafted, sophisticated intelligence products. •Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate, and use these relationships to share information of interest; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences on broad or strategic subject areas.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- A one to two page writing sample that demonstrates the applicant's written communication skills; and •A separate one to two page narrative describing the following requirements: Experience as an Intelligence Analyst with demonstrated and well-developed analytic and critical thinking skills, including a demonstrated ability to think strategically and write high quality, complex finished analytic intelligence products for IC consumers and policymakers at the highest levels of government. Demonstrated and sustained ability to self-initiate finished analytic intelligence products, identify key intelligence developments, and succeed in a high-paced analytic environment with minimal daily direction. Demonstrated and thorough knowledge of analytic intelligence tradecraft, interagency coordination procedures, and IC policies. Demonstrated adaptability and strong multi-
